MARY FLOOD BLUNT FORD WASHINGTON BRIGGS
By Minnie G. Cook and Blanche Adams Chapman

Was this muchly-married Mary the daughter of Colonel John Flood and his second wife, Fortune Jordan? The following cumulative evidence seems to establish her as the eldest child of this couple: The earliest actual record we have as to her identity, is the settlement by arbitration, 19th of November, 1656 (recorded 20th November, 1656) of the estate of Richard Blunt, "between Capt. George Jordan, attorney of James Jauncey, Merchant, whoe is attorney of Mr. Thomas Marsh administrator of Mr. Thomas Jauncey, decd. and Mary Blunt relict of Richard Blunt decd.", the award being "(for the final end and determination of all differences whatsoever that have, may or shall herein after appear)", that Capt. George Jordan aforesaid: Bee forthwith possessed of all the estate which did belong to the said Richard Blunt in Virginia, which now can be found and to be delivered up by the said Mary upon her oath, the said Capt. Jordan out of ye same to deliver up unto her forthwith two cows, two heifers two years old, one maid servant, sic b'rrels of Indian corn, her bed, as it is furnished, her wearing clothes, linen and what properly belongs to herself, with seven hundred pds of tobacco and caske and her poultry and turkeys unto the said Marye this present year, vizt. before the said January next ensueing and to pay or cause to be paid unto the said Mary or her heirs, executors or administrators or assigns out of the cropp next ensueing the sume of five thousand pds. of tobacco and caske conveniently in Surry County, to be both good and sound and merchantable and that the said Capt. Jordan defind, preserve and save harmless from all and all manner of debts, engagements and obligations, which the said Richard Blunt stood inabedt, engag'd or obliged either in Virginea or elsewhere and what encl. amounts she hath made since her s i: husband's decease, which hath been for the providing necessaryes for familiye, witness our hands dated this 19 9ber, 1656.

Memo.- that we aforesaid arbitrators doe find the whole estate of Richard Blunt dece<sup>d</sup>, which he died possessed of properly to belong to Thomas Jauncey dece<sup>d</sup>, the said Jauncey having dispursed about four hundred pounds sterlin<sup>g</sup> upon that designe of (illegible) and what is awarded the said relict of Richard Blunt dece<sup>d</sup>, is done by ye conceent of ye said Capt. Jordan out of charitiye and freelye towards her maintenance, havin<sup>g</sup> had that relation to the said Blunt and that latter payment above mentioned is likewise to be satisfied out of the estate that shall be soulde by the saide Capt. Jordan, but by him to be paid unto her.

19 9ber, 1656

Sit. Thomas Swann, Am. Butler, Ben Sidway, Am. Edwards

Recorded, 29th 9ber, 1656". (Surry Bk. 1, p. 91)

First, it should be noted that as "attorney" for James Jauncey, Jordan was not acting as a lawyer, but merely under power of attorney - the capacity in which said Jauncey was acting for the administrator, Marsh, with power to legally transact business in the place of the administrator of Thomas Jauncey's estate.

Secondly, the text makes it clear that James Jauncey, as a merchant to and from Virginia (as indicated by his havin<sup>g</sup> to appoint a power of attorney to act for him), was representing non-residents of Virginia in the persons of the administrator and the deceased Thomas Jauncey.

Thirdly, since there is not the slightest intimation of fraud on the part of Richard Blunt in possessin<sup>g</sup> himself of an estate that all parties agree to as by right belonging to the deceased Jauncey, it is a clear case joint tenancy with right of survivorship, common in Virginia at this time, often between Virginians and non-residents. A good illustration is furnished in the case between Robert Beverley and the estate of Colonel John Pate, wherein the Court decided, "Whereas there was a Pattent granted to Mr. John Pate and Capt. Robt. Beverley for Six Thousand Acres of Land, and it being now in Dispute This Court are of Opinion that the Right of the Land Both belong to the Said Capt. Beverley by Reason there was a Joynt tenancey Between them, and for the Said Capt. Beverley is the Survivor notwithstanding the writeing Past to Mr. Pate in his Life time by he said Capt. Beverley". (minutes of the Council and General Court, 386.)

In the Blunt-Jauncey case, it would seem that Thomas Jauncey had pre-deceased Richard Blunt whereupon the latter had retained possession of the land. However, another factor was involved - namely, that Jauncey had spent four hundred pounds sterling - quite a fortune for that day - in the "designe" in the way of improvements, "peopling" &c - that is, had undoubtedly supplied the servants for operating the plantation and in other ways financed the project; and it was upon this ground that the adjusters turned the property back to the Thomas Jauncey estate, with the exceptions noted in the document.

The phrase, "and what properly belongs to herself", has led some to suppose this referred to property Mary had inherited from either her father or from a former husband. But this deduction is negatived by the very positive assertion in the "Memo" that that was allowed her "is done by the consent of ye said Capt Jordan out of charitye: in other words, it was property to which she had no legal claim in the case.

Another thing - the usual expression when referring to property belonging to a person was merely that "belongeth to him" or "belongeth to her".

Here, the phraseology is, "her wearing cloathes, linen and what properly belongs to herself" - that is, such things as pertain to her person - not property in general, this being covered in detail and carefully itemized.

There was a special reason for particularizing as to Mary Blunt's "cloathing", linen and all that pertained to her person, at this time, for she either had very recently given birth to Richard Blunt's only child, or she was just about to give birth to said child. For in a deed dated March 5, 1677/78, Thomas Blunt, said son, stated that at his father's decease, he, Thomas, "was of tender ye and one Richard Harris entered into the same (tract of land) and did indirectly hold the same until November last past and ye said Thomas Blunt being come of full age, did make humble suit unto ye Court of ye said County . . . was by judgment of ye said Court put in immediate possession of his lawful inheritance . . ." Dated and recorded March 5, 1677. Thomas' mother, Mary, now wife of her fourth husband, Henry Briggs, together with her husband, relinquised all right and claim to this property which Thomas deeded to Thomas Drew. Witnessed by George Jordan and Arthur Allen. (Surry Bk. 2, p. 168)

This is the last record we have of Mary as being still alive.

If, as the above record implies, Thomas Blunt came of age in November 1677, it placed his birth in November, 1656 - the very month in which she was allowed her "linen, and what properly belongs to herself"; and places Mary's marriage as probably 1655.

Apparently, George Jordan had been given power of attorney by James Jauncey prior to the death of Richard Blunt, for the recovery of the joint property of Blunt and Thomas Jauncey. (Nothing further is known of this Thomas Jauncey; nor of James Jauncey except that in May, 1672,

BRIGGS

Will of William Briggs.
Surry County, Virginia, Book 1738-56, page 569.

In the name of God, Amen. I William Briggs of the parish of Gloucester in the County of Surry, being sick and weak in body, but of sound sense in memory, thank God to his infinity for the same. I do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following. In witness, I commend my soul to God, that gave it me, trusting and steadfastly believing through the merits of my blessed Saviour, Jesus Christ, to receive full pardon for all my sins; my body, I commit to the earth from whence it came to be decently inter'd at the discretion of my executors, and for this worldly goods, that God of his mercy hath bestowed on me, I dispose of as followeth, to wit:

Item: I give to my brother Thomas Briggs all my land in the forks of Sherrin River, all which I give to him and his heirs forever.

Item: I give to my cousin Minerva Cillion fifty acres of land, lying in a corner between the old and the new line of Minerva Cillion's deed. I likewise give to my said cousin Minerva Cillion, eleven pieces of eight, all which I give to him and his heirs forever, provided he pays the quit rent from the date the patent.

Item: I give to my son John Briggs all my land in Surry County, I likewise give to my said son John Briggs one negro fellow called Alice, one black walnut table, one chest, one bed and furniture, all which, all which I give to him and his heirs forever.

Item: I give to my son William Briggs three hundred and thirty-five acres of land lying in Brunswick County, on a creek called Musum, be the same more or less; one negro boy called James, one black walnut table, one chest, one bed and furniture, all which, I give to my said son William Briggs to him and his heirs forever.

Item: I give to my son Henry Briggs four hundred and eighteen acres of land, lying in Brunswick County on the head of a creek, called Musum, one negro boy called Robin, one black walnut table, one chest, one bed and furniture, all which I give to my said son Henry Briggs to him and his heirs forever.

Item: I give all my land that lies on the Upper fork of Grouches Creek to my two sons, namely William and Henry Briggs, to be equally divided between them, when my son Henry arrives to the age of twenty-one years; my will moreover is that if either of my sons, William or Henry Briggs should die before they arrived to the age of twenty-one years or thereabouts, that the surviving one should enjoy the whole, all which I give to them and their heirs forever.

Item: I give to my daughter Elizabeth Chappell one negro call'd Patt, one bed and furniture, which she has not in her possession; I also give to my said daughter Elizabeth one dish, one Cotton Prayer Book, all which I give to her and her heirs forever.

Item: I give to my daughter Mary Chappell one negro bench call'd Hannah, one bed and furniture, which she has now in her possession; I also give to my said daughter Mary one dish, one Cotton Prayer Book, all which I give to her and her heirs forever.

Item: I give to my daughter Mary Briggs one negro bench call'd Fanny, one bed and furniture, six dishes and six plates, one side saddle, one chest as she calls hers, all which I give to my said daughter Mary to her and her heirs forever.

Item: I give to my daughter Rebecca Briggs, one negro girl call'd Biddy, one bed and furniture, six dishes and six plates, one chest, all which I give to my said daughter Rebecca to her and her heirs forever.

Item: I give to my daughter Lucy Briggs one negro boy call'd Foney, one bed and furniture, six dishes, six plates, one chest, all which I give to my said daughter Lucy to her and her heirs forever.

Item: I give to my beloved wife Mary Briggs one negro fellow call'd Hannibal, one negro girl call'd Patt and about fifty shillings as she has in her possession, all which I give to my dear and loving wife Mary Briggs to her and her heirs forever.

Item: My will and desire is, that if either of my children's negroes, to wit: John, William, Henry, Amey, Rebecca or Lucy's should die before they arrive the age of twenty-one years or marriage, that they shall have thirty pounds paid them out of the remainder part of my estate in lieu of the said negro.

Item: I leave the use of the remainder part of my estate to my loving wife Mary Briggs during her natural life or widowhood, and if she should marry my desire is that the remainder part of my estate be equally divided between my wife and children (namely)-John, William, Henry, Amey, Rebecca and Lucy.

Item: I do appoint my dear and loving wife Mary Briggs, my whole and sole executrix of this my last will and testament, to see the same performed to the true intent and meaning hereof in witness whereof I have herunto set my hand and affixed my seal this the eighth day of February in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and forty seven-eight.

HARRY A. BIGGS
VIRGINIA BEACH, VA.

Nov. 2, 1943.

Harry Biggs would like some money to buy the colored and some biology work for a friend of his who is a teacher in a
Dr. Steiner's <sup>name</sup> ~~name~~ of Baker (I think) of 2nd St.
My dear Coco, This is his name.

My dear Coco, Your letter arrived this morning, so I wish to thank you very sincerely for the information. The friend about whom I wrote lives a ~~business~~ <sup>business</sup> man, Mr. T. K.
has made a fortune of several million dollars in the over all business, so of course now he is a hundred in his feeling. As all people in this country will do, they think they must prove their accuracy & opinion. I made only! (over)

The day we finally, of nothing to, etc., of when you have heard me speak, came from the Isle of Negret, but they have lived in Port Cartier over a hundred years.

I am glad you are having such a nice time in Portauk. I have stayed at that hotel several times since and seeing iron I consider.
You say the weather is always spring like there; well, we have ays-ting but spring in Virginia. For several days it has rained and has been extremely cold.

RUPERT TAYLOR
CLEMSON COLLEGE, S. C.

April 12, 1936

My dear Mrs. Chapman,

Clarendon had a Spring vacation last week and invited me to spend four days in Richmond.

While going through David Grainger's 26 for something else I found on page 55 this:

June 20, 1747 T. Thomas Chappell - son of 1733 James Chappell 350a. N. S. Notaway, S. 2 W. who sold to Henry Bigge whose heir
James Chappell

T. Thomas Day and his wife Jane

T. Thomas Bedingfield and his wife Mary
William Arrington

William Burton - and his wife Ann

William Barker and his wife Priscilla

Robert Hill and his wife Hannah failed to pay the quit rents. The land reentered. Only one of these marriages, I believe, is in your books, so they may constitute a new addition. I showed this to Miss Day, whom I met Saturday morning in the Archives Division but she paid little attention to it.

Evidently he was the father of the John T. house of Newmarket who showed up later, son of Mary Lawrence.
She was widow by 1713 (I. of N. and Brook 2.249)

Most of my time in Richmond was spent in getting land bounds from Turkey Island creek across the ~~op~~ of Lester Neck to the Main River in order to clear up definitely a vague and shadowy generation in the Price line before the start of Maine records begin. The pedigree as I wrote it out on this evidence has recently been accepted by the colonial Society - on my evidence - marked "not for publication." But I thought I might clarify it more and give it to Mr. Lawrence for others who want it.

I hope you are getting along well and enjoying Miss Day's visit. My recollection is that she planned & much Smithfield this week.

Lordinally yours,

Rupert Taylor.
